Meet Chef Billy Alexander: The Heartbeat of Mādahòkì Farm's Flavourful Creations!

We are pleased to announce Billy Alexander as our Executive Chef & Director of Culinary Experiences at Mādahòkì Farm

Billy is not just any chef; he's a trailblazer in Indigenous gastronomy, a cultural icon and a dynamic force in the kitchen and beyond. With an impressive resume that includes regular appearances on national TV, founding the Indigenous Culinary of Associated Nations, serving as the Culinary Development Chef for WestJet, recipient of the Canadian Culinary Excellence Award and Calgary's Top 40 Under 40, as well as an advisory board member for Not 9 to 5 Hospitality Mental Health. His impact extends far and wide, from shaping national culinary strategies for the Indigenous Tourism Association of Canada to mentoring the next generation of culinary talent.

Rooted in his rich Indigenous and Scottish heritage, Billy learned the art of cooking from his mother, using ingredients sourced directly from nature—what he calls the “original grocery store.” For him, food is a communal experience, a way to forge unforgettable memories with loved ones. Now, after 25 years of a globe-trotting culinary adventure, he's back in Ottawa, ready to weave new stories and savour the joys of family and land at Mādahòkì Farm! Get ready to experience the extraordinary with Billy Alexander at the wheel!
